

2023 General Livestock Rules

LIVESTOCK DEPARTMENT - GENERAL RULES & SHOW INFORMATION FOR THE 2023 SOUTHWEST FLORIDA & LEE COUNTY FAIR

The Board of Directors of the Southwest Florida & Lee County Fair welcomes our exhibitors who make the Fair what it is - a great place for youth and agribusiness to show and compete. Your participation also provides educational opportunities for the general public to learn more about agriculture and where our food comes from. Rules and Regulations are applicable to all Livestock Exhibitors. The Fair Association is proud of our Livestock Committee and their commitment to making the Livestock Program the best it can be.

All Registrations must be made electronically through our registration program 'ShoWorks' on the Fair's website at www.swflcfair.com, under the Livestock Tab. Payment is due at the time of registration. Please read the registration instructions on the opening page of ShoWorks prior to beginning registration.

By registering for the Fair, each Exhibitor and Parent/Guardian agrees to abide by the Terms, Conditions, Rules, and Policies, including CDC Guidelines, as routinely updated, of and for the Southwest Florida and Lee County Fair Association, Inc. Please print the General Rules and specific Class/Show Rules for your entry and follow them accordingly.

All questions regarding the Livestock Program should be directed to the respective Barn Chairperson listed below by emailing the Livestock Department at: livestockquestions@leeciviccenter.com

2. Physical Residence, Club Membership Standing & Age - Exhibitors must physically reside in Charlotte, Collier, DeSoto, Glades, Hendry or Lee County, and must be currently enrolled in a school program, and must be a bona fide member in good standing of a Chartered 4-H/FFA program active in the region representative of the Fair. After the 1st weigh-in, animals must reside in Charlotte, Collier, DeSoto, Glades, Hendry or Lee County. Failure to comply will result in immediate disqualification. The Fair Board and Livestock Committee reserve the right to ask for proof of school records. Exhibitors in beef breeding, horse, swine and steer competition must be eight (8) years old as of September 1st of the current Fair season. Livestock entries for show and sale by clubs or groups will not be accepted.
3. Age Classes - Age determination for record book judging, showmanship and grooming awards shall be based on the exhibitor’s age as of September 1 prior to the Fair. Awards shall be divided into three classes: Junior: ages 8-10; Intermediate: ages 11-13; Senior: ages 14-18 (High School Senior), as of September 1st of the current Fair season.
4. Management Rights - The management of the Southwest Florida & Lee County Fair reserves the right to amend, add to and interpret the following Rules and Regulations; and to arbitrarily settle and determine all questions and differences in regard thereto, or otherwise arising out of, connected with or incident to the Fair. The Southwest Florida & Lee County Fair and the Livestock Committee assumes no responsibility for the safety, loss, or well-being of exhibits; however, every reasonable precaution will be observed.
5. Protests - Any and all show protests must be made and submitted in writing, plainly stating the complaint and be accompanied by a non-refundable fee of $150.00 for each protest and delivered to Livestock Chairman Monty Winslow within 24 hours after the cause of protest. The Protest will be evaluated and addressed within 24 hours.

6. Property Responsibility - The owner or custodian of property of any kind brought to the Fairgrounds, either for exhibit or for other purposes, assumes as a condition of its admission to the grounds, all risks and/or responsibility for its loss, damage, or theft. The Fair, its officers and employees cannot and will not accept responsibility and liability for any damage or injury resulting from theft, fire, the elements, accidents or other conditions or causes, whether the exhibits, property of the exhibitor, vehicles on the grounds and articles left therein or any other property of any nature whatsoever. Each exhibitor must assume all liability in case of death or injury to his/her animal until the end of the fair, at which time market animals become the liability of the purchaser.
7. Mandatory Meetings, Attendance and Parent/Legal Guardian - A parent or legal guardian must accompany the exhibitor to all mandatory meetings, unless otherwise specified herein. At any official weigh-in, both parent/legal guardian and exhibitor must sign in (at final weigh-in at Fair time, the exhibitor is not required to be present). If the exhibitor is not accompanied by a parent/guardian, the exhibitor will not be allowed to show. Exhibitor, animal, & parent/guardian must be checked in by the designated time. If Exhibitor is accompanied by a 'designated legal guardian', a notarized document must be provided to the Livestock Committee at the designated weigh-in/check-in. A copy shall be retained for the Exhibitor's file. Should an exhibitor need to miss an obligatory meeting or deadline, the Exhibitor may petition their Barn Chair for a one (1) time exemption but must be communicated as early as possible prior to the event to discuss possible options. Barn Chairs have discretion, with the approval of the Livestock Chairman on making optional arrangements. Should a solution not be agreed upon, a fine of no greater than $150 may be imposed, at the approval of the Livestock Chairman and the Fair Management.
8. Beef and Steer Prospect Show Requirements – All Exhibitors in the Beef Breeding/Steer Division are required to attend, and fully participate in weight classes, in at least two prospect shows with their registered SWFL Fair animal by January 17, 2023. A photograph must be emailed to livestockquestions@leeciviccenter.com and the photograph must show the specific exhibitor showing and all pertinent information included – location and date of the Prospect Show.
9. Small Animal Clinic Requirements – All Exhibitors in the Small Animal Division are recommended to attend one Clinic per species. HOWEVER, it is MANDATORY that a NEW Small Animal Exhibitor must attend one (1) clinic - per species. Clinic Dates will be published as soon as determined. Exhibitors must sign in at required clinics. It is also required that NEW EXHIBITORS in the Small Animal Barn attend the New Exhibitor Orientation on Saturday, November 19, 2022, 9am to 11am.
10. Ethics Training & Premise ID - All livestock exhibitors must have completed the Ethics Training to show an animal at the Southwest Florida & Lee County Fair. When registering for the Fair, the Ethics and Premise ID numbers must be entered. Should the Exhibitor not have the information at the time of registration, enter 0's in the field. Exhibitors are responsible for emailing Ethics Numbers to livestockquestions@leeciviccenter.com prior to the deadline. First time exhibitors must have their Ethic's number and Premise ID number by Friday, February 3, 2023. Failure to comply will result in disqualification of animal registered.
11. Proof of Ownership – The Livestock Owners Certificate must be submitted at the first official weigh-in/tag-in/check-in. The Livestock Owners Certificate can be found in the Exhibitors Packet, located on the website under the Livestock Tab. This form will be retained and placed in the Exhibitor's file.
12. Current Health Certificate - Each animal (exception: Small Animals) must have a current up to date health certificate from a veterinarian dated not more than 90 days prior to the Fair. Horses must have an up-to-date Coggins certificate and health certificate dated within 10 days of entering fair from a veterinarian. No health papers will be issued at the weigh-in. All exhibitors are responsible for obtaining their own health papers. Unloading privileges will be refused to any stock not accompanied by official health certificates. Exhibitors are to provide an extra copy to be retained and placed in their file.

MARKET HOGS MUST COMPLY WITH FEDERAL REGULATION 9CFR.71.19. This regulation requires that all swine being shown at fairs or exhibitions (interstate commerce) must have official individual identification. Swine presented that do not meet the federal official individual identification requirements may not be allowed entrance into the fair.

NEW STATE RULES

- All Swine, Steer and Beef will have to have an up to date (90 days) health certificate at the final weigh in/drop off. An animal will not be permitted to stay on grounds without this documentation.
 - All Swine, Steer and Beef will have to have a Breeder's ID regardless of age.
 - At the time of slaughter there will be a report, with BREEDER ID number recorded, given to the/each slaughterhouse.
 - The slaughter report then will be required to have 2 signatures and to be kept for a minimum of 2 years.
 - Acceptable ID are as follows: Metal tag, Round Orange tag or button, and the Round RFID tag.
13. Weigh-Ins, Check-Ins and Check-Outs - It is the SOLE responsibility of the Exhibitor and/or parent/guardian to unload and load their animal at the first weigh-in. Assistance will be provided, upon request ONLY. The Fair Association, Livestock Committee Members, and other volunteers are not responsible for any injury to animal and/or any exhibitor and/or any parent/guardian when assistance has been requested and provided. All animals will be weighed on certified scales provided by the Fair Association. Re-weighing, if deemed necessary by the scale master, will be done prior to the animal leaving the scale chute. The scale will be set to zero (0) and the animal will be reweighed one time only. There are no substitutions allowed for animals after weigh-in/check-in. During weigh-ins only the Exhibitor or one parent will be allowed in the scale area along with Scale Master, unless prior approval is granted by the Livestock Liaison/Coordinator. All weigh slips are signed by the Scale Master, the Exhibitor, and a Livestock Representative. The Exhibitor will be given one copy and one copy will be retained for their file.
14. Competitions and Shows – All competitions and shows are subject to the General Rules. Additional rules for various competitions and shows are outlined in the respective divisions, however General Rules will not be repeated in the Show and Barn Rules. It is the responsibility of the exhibitor to know and follow all the rules. All exhibitors must pre-register for all competitions and shows – there will be no ‘walk up’ entries allowed. All exhibitors must be dressed in the appropriate show attire for all competitions and shows (see Rule #25). There is not a separate show for Swine and Steer Showmanship, nor a separate registration for Showmanship. Showmanship will take place during the Show and winners chosen are at the discretion of the Judge.
15. Animal Screening - All animals used for exhibits or market will be screened regarding health, manageability, and quality. The Livestock Committee reserves the right to reject or require removal of any animal because of health, unmanageability, or inferior quality. If a market animal has a hernia, sores, or lesions, it will be disqualified from entry to the Fair.
16. Property Subject to Control - All property entered at the fair for any purpose shall be subject to the control of the Livestock Committee. Any animal to be exhibited may be used for the 4-H and FFA judging competition. No animal will be used without proper notification to the owner.
17. Barn Rules – Barn Rules are posted in the respective barn, as well as located in this book. It is the responsibility of each Exhibitor to familiarize themselves with, and to follow all rules. Pertinent information such as Barn Chairperson’s contact information, and any announcements will be posted in the respective barn.
18. Tampering Prohibited - Tampering with any animal exhibit entered, such as filling with foreign substances, etc., is prohibited. The use of tranquilizers on show animals or possession of the same after arrival to the fair will be construed as a form of tampering. Tampering will result in immediate disqualification of the animal. No chemicals are to be administered within 30 days of show dates unless administered by a veterinarian and accompanied by a letter from him or her.

19. Duration of Animal Stay - Animals must remain at the fairgrounds until their designated release time. Release times are posted in the respective barns as part of the Barn Rules. Unauthorized removal of any animal or exhibit prior to the designated release time will cause forfeiture of all premiums won, all fees paid and eligibility of participation the following year. If, in such case, a veterinarian determines the need to have an animal removed, only then shall the animal be removed, as coordinated with the appropriate barn chairperson.
20. Pen and Stall Cleaning - Exhibitors are required to feed and clean the pens/stalls daily for each animal they bring to the Fair. Any animal exhibit found and determined not to be receiving proper care by the exhibitor (feed, water, clean pen/stall, etc.) will be cared for by show management. In this case, a notice of violation will be issued to the exhibitor. In addition, a fine may be imposed, including and up to an assessment of up to $50.00 per day. Fines will be deducted from any premium or sale money due to the exhibitor. Should the situation not be corrected immediately, the exhibitor will be disqualified from showing in all barns for the rest of the current Fair, even if registered to show multiple animals, and the registered animal(s) removed from the Fairgrounds. All exhibitors will adhere to all rules. Failure to follow rules may result in forfeiture to participate the following year.
21. Feeding Times and Responsibilities - Feeding times in all barns/departments are located within the respective barn information and will also be posted in the respective Barn. Evening feedings must be completed by 6pm as barns will be open to the public at that time. All Exhibitors must feed once a day on weekdays and twice a day on weekends. Exhibitors must sign in and out for each feeding. Announcements related to possible change of feeding times will be posted in the respective barn.
22. Grooming - Exhibitors are required to groom their own animal; however, exhibitors may enlist the “hands-on help” of other exhibitors only. Parental help is not allowed. Professional groomers are not allowed in the make-up area. Shaving, dying or defacing animals in any way will result in disqualification of the exhibitor and the animal will be removed from the fair and be ineligible for sale.
23. Safe Handling and Control of Animals - All animals must be handled/managed safely by the Exhibitor. If you lose control of your animal three (3) times, it will be subject to removal from the Show and Fairgrounds at the discretion of the Livestock Committee and Fair Management. Bovine must be doubled tied with halter and neck ropes.
24. Exhibitor Workdays – Exhibitor Workdays, such as ‘clean-up’ days, are mandatory and will be addressed in the respective Barn Division and posted in the respective Barn. All Livestock Exhibitors are required to participate in workdays during the Fair and must ‘sign-in’ for ‘clean-up days’ upon arrival. Exhibitor’s failure to participate in the mandatory workdays may result in the exhibitor forfeiting the opportunity to show the following year and a possible fine of up to $150, upon the approval of the Livestock Chairman and the Fair Management. Fines imposed will be deducted from any premiums and/or sale proceeds. Should the Exhibitor be in a barn not selling their project - any fine imposed will be paid prior to the following year’s Fair. Should an exhibitor need to miss an obligatory workday, meeting or deadline, the Exhibitor may petition their Barn Chair for a one (1) time exemption. This must be communicated as early as possible prior to the event to discuss possible options. Barn Chairs have discretion, with the approval of the Livestock Chairman on making optional arrangements. Should a solution not be agreed upon, a fine of no greater than $150 may be imposed, at the approval of the Livestock Chairman and the Fair Management.
25. Exhibitor Competition and Show Attire – Exhibitors shall wear dark black or dark blue pants with a long-sleeved, button front dress shirts and leather boots during all competitions and shows. Official 4-H or FFA jackets may be worn. No BLING on jeans, shirt or jacket permitted. Prior to each exhibitor entering a show, an inspection will be conducted of the exhibitor’s attire. Exhibitors are not permitted to wear open-toe shoes in the barn areas while cleaning pens, feeding, and/or grooming their animals. Crocs are NOT permitted to be worn. Hats nor caps are permitted to be worn during any Show or Sale.

26. Prohibited - No Alcohol, Smoking or Vaping, food, drinks, or overnight sleeping (unless approved by the Livestock Committee and the Fair Management) is allowed in any barn. Profanity, rudeness, and disrespect will not be tolerated. Negative conversation/comments by and from exhibitors and/or Parents/Guardians about other exhibitors for any reason (ie. division/classes assigned, or any other matter that is discussed where an exhibitor is perceived in a negative light or in a position to win, or not to win) will NOT BE TOLERATED. The Fair Association, Livestock Committee, and Barn Chairs take this program seriously, as well as the responsibility of giving every exhibitor an opportunity to participate in a show where everyone is treated with fairness and dignity. Any violations found may be deemed appropriate for removal of an Exhibitor and/or Parent/Guardian from the Fair by the Livestock Chairman and the Fair Management. This applies to everyone!
27. Club Signs - Club signs are not to exceed 21" X 21". All other signs must be 8½" X 11" and be provided or approved by the respective Barn Chairperson.
28. Judging - Judging will be done on the Danish System. The policies of selecting judges and determining judging systems rest with the management. All persons making entries accept these judges and agree to abide by their decisions. Judges must not award premiums to any animal or exhibit because of its mere presence. It must be individually worthy. When there is only one exhibitor and no competition in a class, the judge shall award either first, second, third, or no premium in accordance with the merits of the animal or exhibit. Exhibitors and parents are prohibited from speaking to judges during judging.
29. Premiums, Ribbons and Awards - Premiums are paid on the basis of the judging reports, which must be signed by the respective Show Judge and the Livestock Liaison/Coordinator, or his designee. Ribbons must be displayed at all times. Failure to comply could result in loss of premiums. Premiums will be mailed by check after the closeout of the Fair to the address provided during registration.
30. Project Record Books – Lee County 4-H requires all 4-H Exhibitors to complete a Project Record Book for each species they are showing in the Fair. The Project Record Books, however, are not a requirement of the Southwest Florida & Lee County Fair for exhibitors to show. Therefore, Exhibitors must work closely with their Club Leaders to ensure they are following the rules of their program to remain in 'good standing'. Lee County 4-H will work with 4-H Club Leaders on the Project Record Book process for Exhibitors during the Fair. FFA Exhibitors will need to work closely with their Advisors.
31. Ask Me Booths – the purpose of the 'Ask Me Booth' is to offer the public an opportunity to meet and speak with youth about their Livestock Project. Exhibitors can sign up for a timeslot at the animal check-in or when the registration is posted. Ask Me Booth participation is not a requirement of the Fair Management for each Exhibitor to show, however various barns require participation for competition points. Check your respective Barn for Ask Me Booth requirements. No food or drinks are allowed in the Ask Me Booth. Exhibitors will be evaluated on their participation and interaction with the public and are required to wear 4-H / FFA Attire, or Club t-shirts.
32. Deadlines - Any forms due are to be turned in as outlined in the Rules, or emailed, as directed. When emailed, it is the responsibility of the Exhibitor to follow up and ensure receipt by the Fair Office/Management.
33. Photography - No professional photography allowed.
34. Service Animals – SERVICE ANIMALS ONLY, are permitted. No Pets are allowed other than those in a show.
35. Senior Scholarship Applications – The Southwest Florida & Lee County Fair Association is proud to offer four (4) various scholarships to our graduating seniors. Applications can be found on the Fair website and are due by email to fcrone@leeciviccenter.com no later than Monday, April 3, 2023. Please prepare accordingly.

36. PROGRAM BOOK AD SALES REQUIRED OF ALL STEER AND SWINE EXHIBITORS - Each exhibitor in the Steer and Swine program is required to sell a minimum of $80.00 worth of ads for the Program Book. Any swine or steer exhibitor not selling the required $80.00 will have the amount/difference deducted from their sale money. All other livestock exhibitors are encouraged to sell ads as well. Ad forms can be picked up at the Fair Office or Box Office. Program Ads are due THURSDAY, DECEMBER 1st, by the directions specified below, as well as on the Form. Exhibitors selling above the required amount will receive 20% commission on the dollar amount of ads sold above the required amount, as well as earn premiums for highest dollar amount sold and highest number of ads sold.

Highest dollar amount of ads sold	$100.00

37. Exhibitor Parking Passes – GATE 4 – LIVESTOCK PARKING ONLY - Livestock parking access is allowed through Gate # 4 ONLY - LOCATED OFF OLD BAYSHORE ROAD and Parking Passes must be shown, or vehicles will be turned away. Persons in each vehicle must have an individual pass/id/ ticket to enter. The parking pass allows parking privileges only and is not a gate ticket. All other vehicles must enter through the main gate and park in the main parking lot. Parking passes provided to exhibitors are done so as a courtesy only. Any form of counterfeiting, duplication or otherwise altering of Fair tickets, passes, or parking passes will result in penalties set by Fair Management.
38. SEASON/PARENT PASS – The Season/Parent Pass allows one (1) gate entry per day. One (1) Season Pass is provided to each Exhibitor family and is provided to the Exhibitor in their packet at time of check-in. Additional Season Passes are available for purchase – the form is on the Fair's website, in the Exhibitor Packet information on the Livestock page. The deadline is February 16, 2023. The completed form can be emailed to fcrone@leeciviccenter.com for processing. Payment can be made at time of pickup. Additional Passes can be placed in the Exhibitor Packet only if the Pass has been paid in advance. Please email livestockquestions@leeciviccenter.com with any questions regarding the Season Pass for Exhibitor/Family.

39. OWNER agrees and represents to the Southwest Florida and Lee County Fair Association, Inc. (“AUTHORITY”) that no animals that are exhibiting or otherwise transporting onto LEE CIVIC CENTER AND FAIRGROUNDS will in anyway be suffering from any contagious or infectious disease. In addition, OWNER shall defend, indemnify, and hold the AUTHORITY, the applicable Show Committee and each of their respective officials, officers, directors, employees and agents, in addition to the Lee County Board of County Commissioners, harmless of and from all losses, damages, claims, expenses, including reasonable attorney’s fees at the trial and appellate levels, actions and causes of action arising out of, or in any way connected with, or by reason of this Agreement, the presence of OWNER’S livestock at LEE CIVIC CENTER AND FAIRGROUNDS, an/or use of LEE CIVIC CENTER AND FAIRGROUNDS including, but not limited to any claim for the death of, or injury to any person or livestock, or damage to, theft of, or destruction of any property arising out of any act or omission of OWNER, OWNER’S officers, agents, employees, trainers, drivers, riders, handlers, contractors and livestock, violation of any Federal, State and Local environmental laws, rules, ordinances and/or regulation, actions for negligence, wrongful death, torts, defects in the real and personal property at LEE CIVIC CENTER AND FAIRGROUNDS and from any alleged liability, cause litigation or proceeding whatsoever, even if such injury, death, loss or property damage results, in whole or in part, from the negligence of AUTHORITY, or the applicable Show Committee and their respective officials, officers, directors, employees and agents or otherwise. Neither AUTHORITY nor such applicable Show Committee shall be liable to OWNER, or any officer agents, employees, trainers, drivers, riders, handlers, or other contractors, invitees or guests of OWNER for any injury or damage to livestock, person or property. AUTHORITY, its officers or agents, assume no liability for any loss or damage to property (including but not limited to livestock) on account of fire, theft, or any other cause including infectious or contagious diseases. In addition, OWNER acknowledges receiving and agrees to abide by the applicable rules and regulation of the AUTHORITY titled SOUTHWEST FLORIDA AND LEE COUNTY FAIR ASSOCIATION LIVESTOCK RULES & PRIZE LIST and same are incorporated by reference herein. By registering for the Fair, you acknowledge the contagious nature of COVID-19, H1N1, or similar infectious diseases, and voluntarily assume the risk that you or your family members may be exposed to or infected by COVID-19 through participation in this Event and that such exposure or infection may result in personal injury, illness, permanent disability and death.
40. Indemnification and Hold Harmless: Exhibitor/Owner/Parent covenants and agrees to fully exonerate, indemnify, defend and hold harmless the Southwest Florida and Lee County Fair Association, Inc., its Board of Directors, officers, management, staff, agents, employees, and representatives and the Board of County Commissioners of Lee County, Florida, along with its employees, staff, agents and representatives, individually, jointly, and collectively, from any and all claims, suits, losses, damages, judgments, fines, penalties, liabilities, expenses, including reasonable attorney's fees and costs, in all administrative proceedings and/or at the trial and appellate level and/or pre-suit, for any injury or death to persons and/or any loss of or damage to property caused by, growing out of, or arising out of Exhibitor/Owner/Parent presence on the Fairgrounds or activities under this Program. Exhibitor/Owner/Parent hereby waives entitlement, if any, to immunity under Section 440.11, Florida Statutes. Such indemnification shall not apply to injury to persons or damage to property arising out of the Fair Association's gross negligence or willful misconduct. The obligations contained in this provision shall survive termination of this Agreement and shall not be limited by the amount of any insurance required to be obtained or maintained under this Agreement. Nothing contained herein shall be construed to be a waiver of any immunity or limitation of liability the Fair Association and/or the Board of County Commissioners may have under the doctrine of sovereign immunity or Section 768.28, Florida Statutes.

MARKET ANIMAL AUCTION – Saturday, March 4th 2:00 pm

- The Sale is open to the public and all animals are sold to the highest bidder. All Buyers must be pre-registered and sale order is determined by the Livestock Committee. Buyers must verify their Buyer information prior to receiving their buyer card.
- All animals competing in the Steer and Swine Shows must be sold and delivered to slaughter. There is no live animal pick-up. Buyers may determine their slaughter facility, based on availability, however animals will be delivered to slaughter by the designated Fair Management only. There are no exceptions.
- If there is a group purchasing an animal, only one person will be recognized as the 'Buyer'. The one 'Buyer' will be responsible to coordinate and collect their funds from their contributors. The Fair will not accept funds from numerous 'Buyers' for an animal. The designated 'Buyer' can pay by cash, check, or credit card, but funds will only be accepted from the one 'Buyer' and under the name of one Registered Buyer. The Buyer must complete and sign the Purchase and Sale Agreement. An animal can be split with a maximum of (2) buyers, both of whom must be registered. All sales should be paid the day of the sale, Saturday, March 4th.
- Add-ons – All Contributors must be a 'Registered Buyer', and all add-ons must be paid no later than the end of sale day. If not paid by the end of sale day, along with the completed and signed Add-On Form, the Contributor will need to pay the funds directly to the Exhibitor(s), as the funds will not be processed through the Fair. Each person contributing to Add-Ons must complete and sign their own Add-On Form. Add-on's will not be accepted unless accompanied by the appropriate form. Add-On money will not be accepted after Sale Day. Add-on money in the amount of $100 or less, or to five (5) or less individual Exhibitors, must be paid directly to the Exhibitor(s).
- Exhibitor's may be assessed up to $50.00 to pay for sale pictures, plaques, the buyer's barbeque, and advertising. Any assessment will be taken from the Exhibitor's sale proceeds, in addition to any penalties, as a result of not selling the required ads.
- Exhibitors are responsible for soliciting a buyer on his/her behalf. The exhibitor may provide a sponsor/buyer board above the pen. Boards should be 8½" X 11" with just the sponsor/buyer's name. There is a limit of 1 board per exhibitor. Buyers are not required, and the Fair Association or Livestock Committee is not responsible for tracking a Buyer. This relationship is between the exhibitor & Buyer only.
- Two photographs per exhibitor will be provided for Buyer's Plaques. Exhibitors are responsible for purchasing additional plaques and photographs if they choose.
- Buyers Plaque orders will be taken on Sunday, March 5, 2023. Fred's Award World will be on grounds to take orders. Exhibitors can place their Plaque orders AFTER they have been released from their Barn clean-up requirements by their Barn Chair.
- Buyer plaques must be delivered to the Buyer and the Receipt of Plaque Form emailed to the Fair Office no later than Friday, April 21, 2023. A Receipt of Plaque Form must be signed by the buyer or an authorized designee of the buyer when the Buyer's Plaque is delivered. The Receipt of Plaque Form must be emailed to fcrone@leeciviccenter.com no later than Friday, April 21, 2023. Failure to deliver the plaque and turn in the "Receipt of Plaque" Form by the designated date will result in a 10% deduction from the exhibitor's sale proceeds and may eliminate the exhibitor from showing the following year. The 10% will be contributed to the Fair Youth Scholarship Fund. Exhibitors will receive a list of names they are required to write thank you letters to. This list will be provided to the exhibitor at the time the exhibitor receives their proceeds check from the sale.
- Exhibitors will receive their funds from the sale only after the Receipt of Plaque Form has been received by the Fair Office and after the buyer has paid the Fair Association for the animal. Proceeds will be mailed by check.
- Proceeds from the sale of donated animals will be designated by the donor to the following approved program(s) of the Southwest Florida & Lee County Fair: Livestock Area Improvement Fund, Livestock Fund, Fair Association Youth Scholarship Fund, Adam Barfield Youth Scholarship Fund, or the Lee County Farm Bureau Youth Scholarship Fund.

1. All entries and awards are subject to following the General Rules, beginning on page 2.
2. All entries for Speed and Performance Shows must be included when registering online. There are no additional registration fees for competitions or shows. Walk-Trot classes are for non-cantering riders only. Walk-Trot riders cannot ride in any other classes other than Walk-Trot.
3. Approved safety helmets are required in all events, including halter, showmanship, and in-hand classes. Helmets must be worn at all times when mounted.
4. Horses competing are restricted to those owned by the exhibitor or sponsored by the owner of a horse. A Horse Lease must be in written form and cut off is January 1st of the current Fair year. Proof of Ownership and Sponsorship papers are available from the Lee County Extension Office.
5. All horses must be in place at the close of check-in and remain in place until officially released. No horse(s) will be permitted to be brought in for just a specific event.
6. The Horse Barn Chairperson will assign all stalls and shall have full authority to move or rearrange exhibits when, in his/her judgment, it becomes necessary.
7. Horse stalls must show the name of the exhibitor, breed, age and sex of the horse. The horse registered for Fair is the only horse to be shown. “For Sale” signs are not permitted.
8. It is mandatory that all exhibitors keep their stalls in clean and sanitary condition at all times during the Fair. All stalls and aisles are to be cleaned daily.
9. Exhibitors are required to supply their own cleaning tools. Bedding will be provided at check-in, with refresher bedding supplied mid-week. Exhibitor may supply additional bedding at their own expense. Tents are limited to one (1) 12’x12’ tent per exhibitor.
10. It is mandatory that a halter and a lead rope, in good condition, be left at the horse’s stall.

11. Feed and water buckets must be secured to the stalls. No buckets are to be left on the stall floor. Should have (2) water buckets and (1) feed bucket.
12. No horse is to be washed or clipped in the stalls, aisles or in front of the barns. Washing is to be done at the racks located at the North side of the Horse Barn. Major grooming and clipping should be done prior to the Fair.
13. No horse is to be ridden on the Midway, on the paved area around any food concessions, or in the barns. Any exercising and lounging of horses is to be done in the outdoor horse ring with the gates closed. No horse is to be turned out into the ring and left unattended at any time. The exhibitor - only - may ride while on the grounds and only when a Barn Chair is present.
14. Cribbing devices are mandatory.
15. Stall Guards are prohibited. Stall doors must be secured when horse is stalled.
16. Additional requirements as outlined herein, must all be adhered to.

ALL AROUND HORSEMEN AWARD

(All exhibitors must participate in the All-Around Horsemen Award Contest)

The All-Around Horsemen Award competition is a supplement to the current animal show ring premiums, and rewards exhibitors based on their participation in a wide variety of educational events. Points accrue in the areas of Demonstration, Project Book, etc.

Each event will count for 100 points. Scores will be calculated as a percentage of points available (example: if score were 27 out of 30 available, point would be $27/30 = 90\%$, thus 90 points would be given.) Maximum points will equal 600 with bonus points awarded where indicated. The following events are required and will be included:

1.	Project Book	100 points
2.	Ask Me Booth	100 points
3.	Demonstration	100 points
4.	Poster (percentage out of 30 points)	100 points
5.	Stalls (percentage out of 80 points)	100 points
6.	Showmanship	100 points

100 points is given for participating, additional points awarded for placing as follows:

1 st Place	-	60 points
2 nd Place	-	50 points
3 rd Place	-	40 points
4 th Place	-	30 points
5 th Place	-	20 points
6 th Place	-	10 points
TOTAL		600 points

HORSE BARN RULES

1. Horses must have current Coggins Certificate and Health Certificate dated within 10 days of entering the fair.
2. Feeding times are 6-9am and 4-6pm. Every exhibitor must sign in every morning and evening for feeding. Parents may feed in the mornings during the week. Exhibitors must feed morning and night on weekends.
3. Hay bags need to be hung up high enough so horse cannot get their feet stuck in it.
4. Exhibitors are responsible for the care of their horse and cleaning of stalls daily. Junior exhibitors may have help from parent/guardian or other exhibitors. When you clean your stall, you must dump the waste in the designated area and nowhere else. You must rake in front of your stall, so it is clean and presentable.
5. You Cannot ride unless a Barn Chair is present.
6. Riding may only be done in the arena or holding pens. You must walk your horse from barn to arena.
7. Always check the white board and on the shelf at the barn office for information/announcements.
8. If you don't know something, ask a Barn Chair.
9. At the end of the Fair the stalls must be cleaned and checked by a Barn Chair. Other cleaning in barn may be required before anyone is released. Specific instructions will be provided that day.
10. Remember, everything you do in the barn must be done with safety in mind. Keep stall doors closed at all times unless you are pulling your horse out, putting your horse up, or cleaning your stall. If you clean your stall with the horse in it, then your door needs to be closed.
11. Doors must be closed when barn is open to the public.

PREMIUMS FOR ALL AROUND HORSEMAN Junior, Intermediate, and Senior Divisions

- 1st Place - $75, Belt Buckle
- 2nd Place - $50, Trophy
- 3rd Place - $25, Trophy

DEMONSTRATION

Exhibitors must give a Pre-Fair Talk or Demonstration. This must be in the area of your project animal and be in conjunction with your project animal record book. Exhibitors must submit a script from the talk, a grade sheet from your demonstration, or a letter from your 4-H or FFA leader, and submitted at the animal check-in.

GOLDEN SHOVEL AWARD FOR EXHIBITION CARE AND MANAGEMENT

Animal pens will be judged on cleanliness of pen or stall, condition of water and feed buckets, and condition of animal (grooming, manure stains, etc.) Feeding must be done in a timely manner in accordance with the Fair scheduled feeding times. Failure to complete feeding duties within the allotted time will result in forfeit of points for that day. It also includes giving your animal adequate daily exercise. Exhibitors are expected to take full responsibility of the care of their animal and stall. Junior exhibitors may enlist some “hands-on” help of other exhibitors, parents, or 4-H/FFA leaders, if necessary. Senior exhibitors are expected to be responsible for all aspects of their animal’s care. Failure to comply will result in the disqualification from the Golden Shovel Award competition.

HORSE EDUCATIONAL POSTER

Participation is mandatory. Exhibitors must turn in an educational poster for judging. Posters must be on display by 9am the Friday after check-in. Posters must be done on a 20” X 30” foam board. The purpose of the poster is to help educate the public about your horse project. The required information is as follows and must be clearly visible on the front of the poster: exhibitor’s name, age, and club name; horse’s name, age and breed. Optional information may include pictures, poems, ribbons or other articles. All items should be within the poster edges. The poster will be on display during the Fair in the project animal area. Judging will be based on the following: Topic & Educational Value - 10 points, Originality and Creativity - 10 points, Quality of Work - 10 points, for a possible total of 30 points.

Posters must be removed during the scheduled release time. Posters where it is apparent that the work was done by parents or others will not be judged. Upon acceptance, all posters will be dated and initialed by the Barn Chairperson or their designee. Posters must be the work of the exhibitor.

HEALTH REQUIREMENTS

Goats registered to exhibit at the Southwest Florida and Lee County Fair must comply with the FDACS Rules and Regulations as stated in: FAC 5C-4.005, 5C-4.0017, 9CFR, Part 79-2. This information can be found at flrules.org. By law Florida OCVI is required! All Goats must adhere to the following Scrapie's rules - Requirements for identification of Goats in Shows, Exhibitions and Fairs. All goats must have a Scrapie Tag Flock ID number.

Goats must be officially identified before coming with other groups of animals.

For registered purebred Goats identified with an official breed registration certificate showing registration number, official permanent ID, Tattoo's or Electronic ID (microchip), official ear tags are not required. However, upon presentation of such animal for exhibition, a copy of the breed registration certificate must accompany each animal. Regardless of the method of official identification, each animal must be associated with a premises identification number.

ALL AROUND HERDSMAN AWARD

Points accrue in the following areas: Demonstration, Ask Me Booth, Educational Poster, Exhibit Care and Management, Showmanship, Entry Points, and Pre-Fair Educational Events. Failure to comply in any of these areas will disqualify the exhibitor from the All-Around Herdsman Award.

Each event will count for 100 points. Score will be calculated as a percentage of points available (example: if score were 27 out of a possible 30 available, points would be $27/30 = 90\%$, 90 points would be given). Maximum points will equal 660. The following events will be included:

1. Entry Points (complete, timely, submitted by deadline)	100 points
2. Ask Me Booth (100 points given for participating)	100 points
3. Demonstrations	100 points
4. Poster (percentage out of 30 points)	100 points
5. Exhibit Care and Management (Percentage by # of days at the Fair)	100 points
6. Showmanship (additional points for 1st, 2nd & 3rd.)	100 points

Points for placing as follows for Showmanship:

1 st place	60 points
2 nd place	50 points
3 rd place	40 points
TOTAL	660 points

ALL AROUND HERDSMAN AWARD & PREMIUMS

Junior, Intermediate, Senior Divisions

1st Place: $75, Belt Buckle
2nd Place: $50
3rd Place: $25

DEMONSTRATION

Exhibitor must give a Pre-Fair Talk or Demonstration. This must be in the area of your project animal. Exhibitors must submit a grade sheet at time of Check-In on your demonstration, or a letter from your 4-H/FFA leader stating the date and topic demonstrated. All must be signed by your 4-H or FFA leader and submitted at check-in. A Demonstration is required in order to qualify for the All-Around Herdsman Award and for entry into the Fair.

GOAT EDUCATIONAL POSTER

Participation is mandatory. All exhibitors must turn in an educational poster for judging. Posters must be turned in during animal check-in. Posters must be done on a 20" X 30" foam board. The purpose of the poster is to help educate the public about goats. The required information is as follows and must be clearly visible on the front of the poster: exhibitor's name, age, and club name. All items should be within the poster edges. The poster will be on display during the fair in the project animal area. Judging will be based on the following: Topic & Educational Value - 10 points, Originality & Creativity - 10 points, Quality of Work - 10 points, for a possible total of 30 points. The poster must be removed during the scheduled release time. Posters where it is apparent that the work was done by parents or others will not be judged. Upon acceptance, all posters will be dated and initialed by the Barn Chairperson or their designee. Posters must be the work of the Exhibitor.

Poster Awards per Age Classification

1st Place: Rosette

2nd Place: Ribbon

3rd Place: Ribbon

EXHIBITION CARE AND MANAGEMENT

Animal pens will be judged on cleanliness of pen or stall, condition of water and feed buckets, and condition of animal (grooming, manure stains, etc.). A maximum of 10 points divided by days exhibited will be awarded. Feeding must be done in a timely manner in accordance with fair scheduled feeding times. It also includes giving your animal adequate daily exercise. Exhibitors are expected to take full responsibility of the care of their animal and pen. Pre-Junior Exhibitors may enlist some "hands-on" help of other exhibitors if necessary. Exhibitors are expected to be responsible for all aspects of their animal's care (parents are prohibited from helping – violation will result in forfeiture of the Herdsman points for that day). PARENTS ARE PROHIBITED FROM BEING IN THE BARN DURING FEEDING TIME. Failure to comply will result in the disqualification from the All-Around Herdsman Award.

SHOWMANSHIP – Saturday, February 25th – 2:00 p.m. (Optional participation)

In general, the contest will be judged on the following basis: a) the ability of the contestant to lead, pose, and generally handle his/her animal or other contestant's if indicated by the contest judge; b) the contestant's attention to the ring stewards and the contest judge; c) the contestant's knowledge of proper handling procedures in the show ring as demonstrated by his/her actions; d) other areas as deemed necessary by the contest judge to determine the winners. A contestant can only show his/her animal. Participation in Showmanship is optional but is required in order to compete for the All-Around Herdsman Award.

ENTRY POINTS

Exhibitors competing in the All-Around Herdsman Award must have timely and accurate entries into the fair and fair programs. All information must be submitted by registration deadline of November 4, 2022

GOAT COSTUME CONTEST

This event is open to all registered Goat Project Exhibitors and the Goat must already be on the Fairgrounds. Any entry deemed to be harmful to the youth, the animal, others, or is not in good taste may be disqualified from the Show. This is a fun, optional event, and will not accrue points towards herdsman.

GOAT AGILITY CONTEST

Thursday, February 23rd, 6pm

Safety for you and your goat comes first. There will be a 'Safety Assistant' at each obstacle on the course. They are there to help you and they are the only persons that you will take direction from while running the course.

Goat Agility Contest Guidelines

1. A good relationship between the exhibitor and their goat is important. This includes the ability to control the goat when walking on a lead.
2. Exhibitors and their goat must have some sort of agility experience to participate in this contest.
3. The exhibitor must maintain reasonable control over their goat at all times. Goats must remain on a lead during their time on the agility course.
4. Each Exhibitor may only run the course one time and each exhibitor must use their own goat.

Standard Equipment for Exhibitors

1. Exhibitors must wear boots and follow the dress code for Fair. Your 4-H, FFA or agility t-shirt may be worn.
2. Goat must wear a collar and lead. The lead is for encouraging your goat to follow you through the obstacles.
3. Pulling on your goat is not recommended.
4. Offering treats to encourage your goat is allowed

Timed Event

1. 1st, 2nd, and 3rd Place winners will be chosen for each age divisions of PeeWee, Junior, Intermediate, and Senior. The winners will be the exhibitors who complete the course in the shortest amount of time, including penalties. An 'Overall Agility Champion' will be chosen from the age divisions combined.
2. If there is a tie with times, those exhibitors will run the course again to break the tie.
3. There will be a 10 second penalty for each obstacle of the course that is not completed. This means that the goat's front feet must start each station and its back feet must finish it. If your goat comes off an obstacle you must move on to the next obstacle. Penalty points may occur.

Sections of the Agility Course:

1. Hurdle
2. Weave Poles
3. Shallow Water Pool
4. Roundabout Table
5. High Bridge Walk
6. Teeter Totter
